

About your Apartment & Paris

Paris is often called the city of “romance” and the “Mecca of style,” for good reason. Paris brings together the romance of history along its winding narrow cobblestone roads, and glimmering rivers, to the fashion centers, where you can find Fendi, Hermes, or Chanel, any day of the week. Truly a graceful and exciting city, filled with coffee shops, restaurants, museums, and a multitude of cultural locations that will fill your days with endless things to do.

Your Location

This is about as chic as Paris can be. On the Rive Gauche in the best part of St Germain des Prés; quiet, cute, full of character and with that immaculate style that makes Paris incomparably special. Located between Rue de L’Université and the Seine, our apartment is within walking distance of shops, galleries and the top restaurants. Michelin-star restaurants, top fashion houses, the Louvre, Musée D’Orsay – they’re all near.

Wonderful Shopping!! Local shops are in the browse and discover category and don’t miss Serge Gainsbourg’s legendary house next door. Your concierge will arrange a driver to make life easy. For theatre or event tickets, restaurant reservations or recommendations on just about anything – our concierge is your man in Paris.
