

BANSHA CASTLE

7 Bedrooms Ensuite

Bansha, Tipperary, Ireland

Escape to your own romantic, idyllic, peaceful castle in the heart of the Irish countryside...If you've ever wanted to rent a castle in Ireland, then the 300-year old Bansha Castle is all yours. This is a stunning private castle, with welcoming turf fires, period features and a gracious, elegant atmosphere you won't find anywhere else. It is beautifully positioned amid mature private parkland by the beautiful Glen of Aherlow and the famous Galtee mountains.

Built in 1760 and recently lovingly restored to its full former glory, Bansha is run by the third generation of the Russell family and they assure you of complete privacy for your family gathering, birthday celebration, small wedding or get-together of friends. Easily reached by air, road or rail, Bansha Castle presents the ultimate in castle rental in Ireland.

Bansha Castle is home to John and Teresa Russell. They have opened their historic estate in Ireland to warmly welcome guests who enjoy luxury castle accommodation and style in abundance. They invite short and medium term rentals to the castle and are available to assist if required. Alternatively should you prefer anonymity, you need never meet your hosts once you have been welcomed to Bansha Castle.
