Bantry Bay, Cape Town, South Africa

Welcome to De Wet, a luxury mansion on a quiet cul-de-sac in one of Cape Town's most sought after suburbs, where you will experience life the way it should be - relaxed, luxurious and beautiful. Quietly unwind on a long summer evening, admire the sunset and breathtaking views over the rocky Atlantic coastline, suburbs and beyond. Bask in the warm sunshine on a lounge by the pool, or explore some of the world's finest beaches nearby.

The mansion has seven spacious, air-conditioned bedrooms that have a remarkably serene ambience and large sliding doors that compel you out onto the balcony to admire the wonderful view. Natural wood and leather furniture is effortlessly combined to create an informal, yet elegant interior, complimented by subtle color schemes, fresh flowers and sumptuous fabrics. The walls are adorned with colorful original paintings by well known South African artists, and you will find many striking examples of tribal art dotted around the house. In fact, if you are interested, we will accompany you to the gallery where you will find other works of art by the same artists.

The honeymoon suite adjoins the mansion, and it is split over 2 levels. The main room affords the best views, with a sun terrace. As with the rest of the mansion, the suite is elegant and unique and has liberal scatterings of paintings and sculptures. The bedroom can be found down the wrought iron spiral staircase and is the same size as the upstairs. There is a fabulous red leather bed and a bathroom that not even the photos can do justice.

The honeymoon suite can be rented separately or as part of the whole villa.
