Western Cape, Plettenberg Bay, South Africa

Understated Elegance greets visitors to this exclusive establishment situated in the heart of the popular coastal resort of Plettenberg Bay. Discover the true meaning of relaxation and enjoy the sweeping views over lagoon, ocean and mountains while sipping a glass of Cape wine from your private balcony.

Ultra luxury accommodation paired with the unspoiled nature is just what you need to replenish your soul. This is the ideal destination for those wishing to explore the Garden Route, especially with the spectacular beaches, excellent restaurants, boutique shops, exciting activities, prestigious golf courses, nature walks and so much more.

This luxury retreat is centrally located close to the beaches and the town centre. The stunning views of the looming mountains, shimmering lagoon and beautiful bay will leave you in awe. Tastefully decorated with much thought and attention to detail this beautiful home is very well equipped with wireless internet, PVR satellite television and under floor heating. There are also fans and fire places for your comfort. The wooden deck and rim-flow pool is perfect for absolute relaxation.

Your comfort is a priority and with this in mind care has been taken to provide a selection of services. The home is serviced by a permanent housekeeper. We serve a mouthwatering continental buffet included in the price or full English breakfast is available at a very reasonable price. Dinners prepared by a professional chef can be arranged at the house and even massage therapists are on call to pamper you.

Our friendly personnel guarantees first class service and are on hand to provide useful information about the surrounding Plettenberg Bay and can assist in making dinner, taxi and activity reservations for your convenience.
