

Kīlauea Hot Spots

Waimea Canyon - On the Southside

Napali Coast boat ride- a life changing experience

Workout at the Princeville gym not the hotel gym, the Princeville Health club -8 minutes from the Dali Hale

Cost $15.00 per session

Do laps there if you like to swim - walk the golf course, its beautiful

Helicopter ride in Princeville, excellent

Picnic at Hanalei Bay - Make a picnic lunch or buy dinner and eat at Hanalei Bay under the stars, roast marshmallows, build bonfire

Snorkel at Princeville Hotel - they will rent snorkels or rent them in Hanalei and keep them in your car. Travel with towels, an umbrella. There are so many beautiful beaches to explore in our neighborhood.

Snorkel at Tunnels beach - Kids love it

Visit the Queens bath for a spectacular view ask Amy or our caretakers to take you. Bring your snorkels & towels, on the way to the Queens bath is a water fall.

Go to all our beaches Rock Quarry, End of the road beach, Hanalei Bay, Kalihiwai, tunnels & Anini Beach

There is a Happy Hour at Princeville Hotel and a beautiful spectacular view of Bay. At night, for music and sushi or hor'd or dessert, coffee and tea. Afternoon tea is served there too.

Sunday Brunch and seafood Friday Buffet at Princeville Hotel is fun

Go to Lumahai Gardens - at the top is a beautiful view at sunset

Shop in Hanalei Town lots to buy there

Hanalei Town - 20minutes from home

Go to Ola's shopping spot is next to Dolphin restaurant

Eat at Sushi Blues in Hanalei - Music on Tues nights

Polynesian Café - outdoor café - next door to Sushi Blues
Good for take out

Bamboo Bamboo - Restaurant - not great

Post Cards Café - great for fish, soup, salads, and Pupu's

Dolphin Restaurant - eat there but tell them not burn the fish on the grill sometimes they overdo it - we always get the wonderful family style salad , steamed artichokes, Ahi teriyaki, Wahoo, yaloo, monchong fish - do not eat ono ( it makes people ill) (inside info from sushi people here in LA)

Hanalei Gourmet - nice deli foods, love the boiled shrimp plate

Bubba burgers -in Hanalei

Andy will tell you to get a pork sandwich from the Mixed Plate - Hanalei

In Kilauea

Haven't gone to the Lighthouse Bistro for dinner yet
It's ok for lunch.

Get pizza and great bakery goods at the Paupau bakery they have soups and salads, great for breakfast and coffee:

Buy fresh fish from the new fish market- they serve great take-out and we love the giant Ahi tuna wraps and the

Hawaiian style chicken plate to take out when we don't want to go out or cook at home.

There is a farmers market in our town Tues/Sat don't miss it and buy fresh fruits for the little road stands - Along our block

Get fresh non-dairy smoothies and ice cream made from fruit at Banana Joe's on the main road near our house

Golf? Zipline Horseback riding windsurfing

All available and fun

In Princeville near hotel - eat at Sabella's Italian food - Order the lighter dishes, some can be very heavy- best calamari

In the beginning

Princeville is 10 minutes away

Hanalei 20 minutes away

Kilauea is our neighborhood

In Kilauea you have Bananas Joes - fruit stand, Mango Mama's for sandwiches, Kung lung for shopping and the candle shop, the Lighthouse Bistro for lunch- Movie Theater for rainy days - little market for replenishing your fridge

Groceries - can be purchased in Princeville at Foodland, Ace hardware, other shops and eateries, Lamperts Ice cream don't miss a scoop or 2

Take a ride to the South end- nice beaches there too

Barron's & Wall Street Journal can be ordered they will hold issues for you

Relax at the house, be very careful going down to Secret Beach - and watch the waves it can be wild in the fall and winter and spring too

If you go to Kapaa in the south end stop at Kintaro's - Benihani style cooking. Have a beautiful time Warmest aloha, Dahlia