Big Island, Hawaii

A Paradise, unlike any other you will find on the Big Island of Hawaii. To most this can only be called “eye candy,” and the Architectural dream we all wish we could afford to live. The house is perfectly placed within walking distance to a white sandy beach, with ocean views that seem to go on forever from almost any room in the house. This Vacation Villa is special because it has been the inspiration for many young stars and athletes in some of their more private times.

The house features: Beautiful tropical gardens, unique pool and spa, huge, gracious entertaining rooms and lanais, custom-designed Asian style furnishings, 7 baths, 2 full kitchens, 3 working bars (2 outdoors), secluded mini-apartment area with small kitchen, spacious master bedroom suite with complete, modern in-home gym, fully appointed office/study with high-speed Internet access, fax, and conference phone, giant outdoor television screen for night viewing, theatre-style media room, and Intercom, individual sound system in every room.

Along with that, the house also features various flora and fauna, amazing cove ponds, spectacular rooftop terrace where you can dine and enjoy the sounds of the ocean at night, and an outdoor spa that sits nestled over the pool. There is just no way to arrive and not fall in love with this Tropical Villa Oasis. It is truly a wonderful place for family and friends to stay.
